THE GLASS BLOWERS

A LYRICAL COMEDY
IN THREE ACTS

FROM MAINE TO OREGON
March - Piano Solo
5

WHEN YOU CHANGE YOUR NAME TO MINE
Song and Duet
6

THE CRYSTAL LUTE
Song
7½

IN THE DIMNESS OF TWILIGHT
Song and Duet
7½

THE DINNER PAIL
Song
6

THE AMERICAN GIRL
Song
6

JOHN PHILIP SOUSA

THE JOHN CHURCH COMPANY
CINCINNATI · NEW YORK · LONDON

The American Girl

Song

JOHN PHILIP SOUSA

Moderato con moto

mf

The maid of old Eng - land is haugh - ty, And Ma - vour - neen The Imp, loves to tease you, And

p greets you with a "no, no, nev - er!" Mam - zelle from Pa - ree thinks she's High - land Jen - ny says "I win - na" Pa - qui - ta would die just to

Copyright MCMXIII by The John Church Company International Copyright

naugh - ty, But u - su - ally she's deu - ced clev - er, The please you, A Hol - land maid - en cooks your din - ner. The Fräu - lein from Ber - lin is cling - ing, The blonde of the Swede cold - ly Gei - sha she lan - guid - ly fails you, The Gip - sy Prin - cess reads your grand, But the ne - plus - ul - tra of the girls I know, The hand, But the "mile - a - min ute" of the girls I've seen, The three ring cir - cus and the all day show, Is the neat bit of, sweet bit of sat - in fin - ished and the un-crown'd queen, Is the shy lit - tle, sly lit - tle senza rall.

cal - i - co, That rules this might - y land, This might - y girl, I ween, Who rules this might - y land, This might - y land, that rules this land, this might-y, might-y, might-y land.

land, that rules this land, this might-y, might-y, might-y land.

p

She's a hon - ey girl, When the sum-mer sun shines all day;

p

She's a sun - ny girl, When the bud - ding buds bud in

May, Be - witch - ing in her beau - ty rare, With won - drous eyes and love - ly hair, And form and grace be - yond com - pare, She holds un - daunt - ed sway, For gra - cious good - ness, bless my soul, There's nothing like the girl - ies of the U. S. A! A!

DANCE

For gra-cious good-ness, bless my soul, There's nothing like the girl - ies of the U. S. A.